Branch Event & Dinner

Thursday 17th October, 2019 - 1500 hrs until 1830 hrs, Radisson Blu Hotel, 107 Old Hall Street,
Liverpool L3 9BD

“Life after the Sea”

This year will be the Branch's 10th consecutive seminar and dinner. Following on from their sponsorship last year The TK Foundation has again kindly agreed to sponsor this year's event. A panel of five professional seafarers will each speak for thirty minutes on their current career followed by 15 minutes of questions. The seminar will end with a Q & A to the full panel. As in previous years there will be cadets from Liverpool John Moores University and Fleetwood Nautical Campus in the audience.

Panel:

Capt. Ian Blair, Temp. Director MCA, Southampton
Capt. Daniel Millett, Marine Consultant, Brooks Bell, Liverpool
Donal Kearney, Lawyer, Hill Dickinson, London
A Class surveyor from Lloyds Register
A Ship Manager from Bibby Line, Liverpool

The seminar will be followed by the Annual Branch Dinner at the same venue, 1900 for 1930

Dinner: £27.50 pp - partners welcome.

It would be appreciated if Branch Members could check that their personal details are up to date on the HQ database. This can be done by logging on to the "Members' Area" on the HQ website at www.nautinst.org. You will require your membership number. Once logged in you can update your own information, check your subscription, list your special interests, join a forum, view Seaways' Archives and download briefings.

The proposed programme is intended as a guide only. You are advised to confirm details by checking the Branch website or contacting the Branch Secretary before setting out..
The Branch is always pleased to receive details of speakers on suitable maritime subjects.
